ESSENCE

A sauna session is an ancient cultural experience that brings peace and serenity. A way to connect with nature by slowing down and allowing yourself time to take the deepest breaths of your day, releasing the energy hidden in the body.

The Tyyni collection is the work of Piotr Gniewek, an acclaimed architect and industrial designer whose craft is deeply rooted in artisanal heritage. Piotr's formative years were spent in the quiet, methodical environment of his grandparents' carpentry workshop, where he first developed a profound respect for the material.

This foundation was later refined in Finland; it was here, through immersive study, that he mastered the subtle nuances of authentic sauna culture. In his creative process, Piotr draws upon the organic world and classical tradition, resulting in pieces that possess an expressive, yet entirely enduring, character.
